

Understanding Social Value Seminar

20 October 11:00 - 14:00, lunch provided
Presented in partnership with Kier Group

Social value reflects the positive impact businesses have on communities and society. Join us for an in-person seminar along with Kier, to learn how social value is measured, why it matters, and how to apply it using real-world examples.

This seminar is ideal for social value and sustainability professionals, procurement and supply chain specialists, project and business leaders, and government or community stakeholders. Attendees will gain practical insights to meet evolving requirements, improve impact measurement, and align strategies with the PPN 026 framework.

Click here to reserve your place

Programme and presenters

Join Heidelberg Materials' Jops Hill, Social Value Coordinator, and Louise Roberts-Burkinshaw, Sustainability Business Partner, along with Donna Howard, Head of Social Sustainability at Kier Transportation as they discuss:

- Understanding the PPN 026 framework
- Practical measurement techniques
- Real-world examples: insights from case studies showcasing successful implementation of social value strategies

How to find us

We are a five-minute walk from Barbican, Farringdon or Old Street underground stations.

Our address is

Heidelberg Materials evoHub, Techspace
140 Goswell Road, London
EC1V 7AD

